

ACADIA UNIVERSITY

and

THE ATLANTIC CHAPTER of the AMERICAN FISHERIES SOCIETY PRESENT:

A short taste of FISHERIES RESEARCH at ACADIA UNIVERSITY

When: Tuesday, September 28 – starting at 4:00pm (EDT)

Where: Teams (link to follow)

With presentations by:

1. Zhe Yang: Masters student

Title: Striped Bass Gonad Development

2. Alysa Czenze: Masters student and Cole MacLeod: Honours student

Title: Assessing offshore lobster demographics, morphometrics, and movement in Nova Scotia's lobster fishing areas 33&34

3. Sydney Boyacheck: Masters student

Title: Invasive Chain Pickerel in Kejimikujik National Park and National Historic Site: Spawning Timing and Effects on Native Fish Assemblages

4. Andrew Czich and Paige Levangie: Masters students

Title: A Spatial Temporal analysis of fish and macro-invertebrates in the Minas Basin in support of marine spatial planning